THE ANNUAL CAMPUS SAFETY AND SECURITY REPORT

Peloton College (Main Campus) encourages all students and employees to be completely aware of the safety and security issues on the campus. In addition, the college expects that students and employees will take action to prevent security issues and to report any illegal and inappropriate activities. Peloton College firmly believes that personal safety practices are the foundation of a safe campus community.

Therefore, and pursuant to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, Peloton College (1) monitors criminal activity, (2) publishes this annual report, and (3) maintains a three-year statistical history on its campus. Peloton College has no authority to require any local law enforcement agency in any state in which the college maintains campuses and campus facilities or the judicial court process to take any action in connection with a reported crime. Peloton College encourages prosecution of all criminal violations through the criminal courts and, if appropriate, the college student conduct process for violations committed on campus by other students.

Peloton College currently has a number of policies and procedures relating to campus security and safety, and the college expressly reserves the right to modify those policies or procedures or adopt additional policies or procedures at any time without notice. Such changes may appear in successive issues of this annual report. B. Policies for preparing the annual disclosure of crime statistics

Peloton College will issue an annual report of criminal reports made to campus security authorities and law enforcement agencies for property or facilities within its Clery geography. These personnel will serve as the college's liaison with all appropriate law enforcement agencies.

D. Procedures victims should follow if a crime of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking has occurred.

1. Contact the local campus management (as identified in Paragraph 2.1.A.) and/or the local police department (911) as soon as possible after the offense. Options with respect to the involvement of law enforcement and campus authorities may include:
   a. Notifying local police (911);
   b. Requesting assistance from campus authorities to help notify law enforcement if the victim so chooses;
   c. Decline to notify such authorities;

2. Please remember it is most important to preserve evidence. Do not bathe, douche, use the toilet or change clothing. Note everything about the location. If you have been sexually assaulted, you should seek medical attention immediately regardless of whether you want to report the matter tothe police or Peloton College. Preservation of evidence may assist in proving that the alleged criminal offense occurred, or may be helpful in obtaining a protection order.

3. Where applicable, the institution will make every effort to abide by the rights of victims and enforce any official protection orders, “no-contact” orders, restraining orders, or similar lawful orders issued by a criminal, civil, or tribal court or by the institution.

E. Every attempt is made to maintain the anonymity of the victim. Each report of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking will be investigated in order to provide better protection to the survivor and all members of the campus community. Victims should be aware that:
1. Depending on the circumstances of the incident, the college will refrain from releasing information regarding the fact that a crime has occurred to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide the accommodations or protective measures for the safety of others.

2. The college is required to complete publicly available records including Clery Act reporting and disclosures but will do so without providing personally identifying information about the victim including but not limited to identity, address, or other personal information of the victim.

F. Bystander Intervention is encouraged at Peloton College. Intervening as a bystander involves recognizing a harmful situation or potentially harmful situation and having the ability to intervene to prevent or reduce the risk of harm in the instance of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Bystander Intervention may include actions such as speaking out and/or reporting to campus authorities about information you know regarding an alleged instance of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking; stepping-in, disrupting, or calling for help to stop these situations; supporting others by escorting or offering assistance to potential victims; remaining present when a perpetrator is around to lessen the likelihood that something will occur. When witnessing a harmful or potentially harmful situation, it is important to keep the following in mind to reduce the risk of criminal activity involving dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking:

1. Pay attention to what is going on.
2. Interpret the situation to determine if there is an issue.
3. Take responsibility to assist or call for help. Don't assume others will.
4. Know what action you can take to help that won't put you in harms way.
5. Take Action.

G. Peloton College will provide written notification to students and employees about existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid, and other services available for victims both within the institution and in the community upon request. Contact the school director to request such information.

H. Peloton College will provide written notification to students about options for, available assistance in, and how to request changes to academic, living, transportation, and working situations or protective measures. Peloton will make such accommodations or provide such protective measures if the victim requests them and if they are reasonably available, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to campus police or local law enforcement. Contact the school director for more information on these available options.

I. Whether an offense occurs on or off campus, Peloton College will provide the victim with a written explanation of the student's rights and options in cases where the individual is a victim of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

11. POLICY ON DISCLOSURE PROCEDURES FOR STUDENT DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS FOR ANY VIOLENT CRIME OR NON-FORCIBLE SEX OFFENSE (INCEST OR STATUATORY RAPE) AND FOR INSTITUTIONAL DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS IN CASES OF ALLEGED DATING VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, OR STALKING

A. The Peloton College disciplinary process is an option for any person wishing to report a case of student misconduct including those related to violent crime, non-forcible sex offense, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Procedures victims should follow if a crime of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking has occurred are outlined in Section 10.B of this manual. In most cases, in order for Peloton College to proceed with investigating a complaint (whether by a victim or a third party), a report must be filed with the college. However, there are instances where the college will proceed with investigation even if the complainant does not wish to file a formal complaint, in order to maintain the safety and security of others. If the complaint is criminal in nature, it will also be forwarded to the local campus management and/or the local police department.

C. There are different standards of proof (evidence) in the college conduct proceedings than in possible criminal action. The college conducts proceedings to determine whether the accused's status as a student will be altered, whereas the criminal process determines if there will be limitations on the accused's liberty. In cases involving allegations of sex offenses, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, the complaint will be referred to the college's appropriately appointed representative(s) who has received training on related issues, for investigation. Appropriately appointed representatives cannot have any direct or indirect relationship to the accused or accuser that may present a conflict of interest or bias towards any of the parties involved in the complaint.

D. The school representative will discuss the allegation with the complainant and the actions the complainant is seeking in response to the complaint.

E. The accused will be given adequate notice of and the opportunity to respond to the allegations in the complaint.

F. The school appointed representative's investigation and standard of evidence will include the review of all complaint allegations, interviewing recommended witnesses on behalf of the parties involved, evidence of credibility of the parties involved, previous related behavior of both parties, behavior following the allegations, and may also consider formal outcomes in cases where lawful authorities are involved. The representative will determine or recommend a resolution and any further appropriate disciplinary action consistent with school conduct and disciplinary policies outlined in the school catalog. Disciplinary actions may include a verbal warning/reprimand, probation, suspension, or dismissal. In some cases, an informal or formal hearing may be necessary. In such cases:

1. The accuser, accused, and appropriate officials will be given timely and equal access to any information that will be used during the informal or formal disciplinary hearings.

2. Both the accuser and the accused are entitled to have others present (an advocate or an advisor) during the disciplinary proceeding. This person may not speak in your place or ask questions of witnesses.

3. Both the accuser and the accused have the right to request, in advance, the names of witnesses and shall have the right to question witnesses during the hearing.

G. Both the accuser and the accused will be simultaneously informed in writing of the outcome of any campus disciplinary proceeding concerning the complaint in accordance with applicable laws. In cases where the outcome is contested by the accuser or accused, the contesting party may request an appeal of the decision. The appeal must be submitted in writing, outline the reason(s) and evidence to consider in the appeal, and be submitted to the school appointed representative or school director. An appeal panel will be convened by the school to review the case, request further information from either party involved in needed, and make a final determination. Any changes in the results of the original decision will be distributed in writing to both parties involved. The decision of the school's appeal panel shall be final.

H. These proceedings are intended to be prompt, fair, and impartial. As such, the anticipated timeline of the proceeding is not expected to exceed more than 14 business days from initial complaint to final resolution. The timeline may vary based on unforeseen or extenuating circumstances that may arise during this disciplinary process. Where it is determined that for good cause the timeframe for these proceedings will exceed 14 business days, the institution will promptly notify both the accused and accuser of any time extension and the reason for the delay.

I. This information should not be disclosed to the public generally. Notwithstanding section 444 of the General Education Provisions Act (20 U.S.C. 1232g), commonly referred to as the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), the result will include the rationale for the result and any sanctions imposed.

J. In cases where the alleged victim seeks accommodations or protective measures while in school, the victim may request that Peloton College take appropriate reasonable action on such measures. Requests will be granted if reasonably available and if a complaint has been filed with Peloton College and/or the appropriate local police department. Confidentiality of any accommodations or protective measures provided to a victim will be maintained to the extent that such confidentiality will not impair the ability of the institution to provide the accommodations or protective measures.

12. POLICY ON THE INSTITUTION'S EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION PROCEDURES AND TIMELY WARNINGS

In the event of that a significant emergency or dangerous situation (i.e. certain crime activity, building issues such as gas leaks, fire, or structural conditions, bomb threats/active shooter/intruder incidents, rioting, or natural occurrences of extreme weather, earthquakes, tornados, and the like) has occurred and it is determined that the event poses an eminent or continuing threat or danger to the health or safety of the college community, the school will immediately communicate a warning through appropriate media for further action to be taken which may include evacuation of the campus. Appropriate media can include blast email and text messaging, phone communication, and applicable building warning systems such as audio/visual alarm systems.

Campus management is responsible to confer with appropriate authorities and/or refer to public warning systems to confirm there is a significant emergency or dangerous situation that affects the campus community. Campus management will, without delay, and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification system, unless in the professional judgement of responsible authorities, issuing a notification such as in the event of a Clery crime will compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Campus management may include the Campus President, Director of Financial Aid, Director of Admissions, Director of Education or Lead Instructor, or the Director of Career Services. The issuance of a warning shall be completed by the Campus President or responsible designee.

Timely Warnings may be triggered for incidents involving Clery crime activity where such warning will not compromise an ongoing investigation or the rights of the victim. Timely Warnings will be issued to the appropriate segment of the campus community which may include students, faculty, and staff as determined by campus management.

The institution will conduct regular testing of the emergency response and evacuation procedures on at least an annual basis. The test procedure shall:

A. Be announced or unannounced

B. Be conducted at least annually

C. Include publicized emergency and evacuation procedure information

D. Be documented to include information on the type of exercise conducted, the date and time of the exercise, and whether or not the test was announced or unannounced.

13. MISSING STUDENT NOTIFICATION POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Peloton College does not provide any on-campus student housing facilities and therefore is not required to publish any policies regarding missing student notification procedures required of institutions that provide on-campus housing.

14. CRIME LOG

Peloton College is a small campus located on the 2nd floor of a professional office building (the Campbell Centre Complex). The campus does not employ security personnel/police nor maintain a campus security department for the school per se. Campus management personnel are responsible for the safety and security of the campus community and maintaining a campus Crime Log to record any crime that occurs on campus property owned or controlled by the institution, non-campus facilities (Peloton does not have non-campus facilities), public property adjacent to the campus, or other property identified as within its Clery geography.

A. The Crime Log must:
   1. Include the nature, date, time, and general location of each crime;
   2. Include the disposition of the complaint, if known;
   3. Be logged within 2 business days of the reported crime;
   4. Be available for public inspection during normal business hours and contain information for activities logged within the most recent 60-day period.
   5. Be made available for public inspection within 2 business days, any portion of the log older than 60 days.

B. Peloton College may withhold required information under this section if there is clear and convincing evidence that the release of the information would:
   1. Jeopardize an ongoing criminal investigation or the safety of an individual;
   2. Cause a suspect to flee or evade detection; or
   3. Result in the destruction of evidence.

Withholding of information under these circumstances only applies to that information that would cause these adverse effects. Once it is determined that withheld information no longer poses any adverse effect, it must be disclosed.

15. ANNUAL CRIME STATISTICS

The following Annual Crime Statistics Supplement is the statistical report of the number of Clery Act defined crimes reported to Peloton College and/or the appropriate local police agency(s) for this campus. The statistics reflect crimes occurring on or within the Clery geography of the campus. The tables include reported criminal activity in the categories mandated for the three most recent calendar years. Each reporting period begins January 1st and ends December 31st for the indicated calendar year.
